

The Next Step:

What can a parent do if the meeting with the coach did not provide a satisfactory resolution?

1. Call and set up an appointment with the Athletic Director at (586) 439-7252 to discuss the situation.
2. At this meeting the appropriate next step can be determined.

The Research Says...

Research indicates that students involved in co-curricular activities have a chance for success during adulthood. We hope the information provided within this pamphlet makes both your child's and your experience with the Fraser Public Schools Athletic program more enjoyable.

We believe that the Fraser High School Athletic program helps develop the character traits that promote a successful life after high school.

AN ATHLETE'S POEM TO PARENTS

How badly you must want to win,
Not for yourself but me,
So help me play this game,
With dedication, goals and dignity.
It's embarrassing for me,
When you criticize my coach,
If you think you can be helpful,
Then try a new approach.
Call and make arrangements,
To meet coach face to face,
Far better than to yell at them
In such a public place.
I think that you will also find,
Your friendship will be sealed,
In a more conducive atmosphere,
Than on the playing field.
Please try to go along with coach,
Not judging wrong or right,
You know they've got a job to do,
That must be done tonight.
As coach stands alone down there,
In front of all the fans,
Help him do the job he must,
By staying silent in the stands.
Snap decisions he must make,
Under pressure of the game,
And certainly where you must sit,
Tis' not really quite the same.
Even when he calls it right,
I often make a mistake,
That surely make him look as though
His coaching is at stake.
Sometimes he will chew me out,
Then he'll pat me on the back,
And I will get it next time,
You can count on that.
He'll take the blame for losses
And walk out on a limb,
But he'll give his team credit
For each and every win.
So be there when I need you
Shout encouragement to me.

Parent/Coach Communication

Parent/Coach Relationship

Both parenting and coaching are extremely challenging vocations. By establishing an understanding of each position, we are better able to accept the actions of each other, providing greater benefit to children. As parents, when your children become involved in our program, you have the right to understand what expectations are placed on your child. This begins with clear communication from the coach of your child's program.

Communication You Should Expect From Your Son/Daughter's Coach

1. Philosophy of the coach.
2. Rules and expectations the coach has for your child and the other players on the squad.
3. Locations and times of all practices and contests.
4. Team requirements, i.e. fees, special equipment, off-season conditioning.
5. Procedure should your child be injured during participation.
6. Discipline that results in the denial of your child's participation.

Communication Coaches Expect From Parents

1. Concerns expressed directly to the coach.
2. Notification of any schedule conflicts well in advance.
3. Specific concerns regarding a coach's philosophy, rules and/or expectations.

As your children become involved in the Fraser athletic program, they will experience some of the most rewarding moments of their lives. It is important to understand that there may also be times when things do not go the way you or your child wishes. At these times, discussion with the coach is encouraged.

Appropriate Concerns To Discuss With Coaches:

There are situations that may require a conference between the coach and the parent. These are to be encouraged. It is important that both parties involved have a clear understanding of the others position.

1. The treatment of your child, mentally and physically.
2. Ways to help your child improve so that your child will see more playing time.
3. Concerns about your child's behavior.

It is very difficult to accept your child not playing as much as you may hope. Coaches are professionals. They make judgment decisions based on what they believe to be best for all students involved.

Issues Not Appropriate To Discuss With Coaches

While there are certain things which can and should be discussed with your child's coach, there are other things which must be left to the discretion of the coach.

1. Strategy
2. Play calling
3. Other student-athletes

If You Have Concerns To Discuss With The Coach, The Procedure You Should Follow....

When parent-coach conferences are necessary, the following procedure should be followed to help promote a resolution to the issue of concern.

1. If the coach cannot be reached, call the Athletic Director at (586) 439-7252.
2. Call the high school to set up an appointment with the coach (586) 439-7252.
3. Please do not attempt to confront a coach before or after a contest or a practice. These can be emotional times for both the parent and the coach. Meetings of this nature do not promote resolution.
