

Endangered Species Coin Wars

Vaquita

HABITAT oceans

DIET small fish, crustaceans such as shrimp & cephalopods such as squid and octopi.

THREATS unsustainable illegal fishing

INTERESTING FACTS The vaquita is the world's smallest porpoise and most endangered cetacean in the world, it was discovered in 1958 and is on the brink of extinction..

Hosted by

The IKE

Green Team WWF

VS

Bactrian Camel

HABITAT Desert

DIET Plants

THREATS habitat loss

INTERESTING FACTS Bactrian camels are well-adapted for life in their harsh desert environment, with dense eyelashes that protect their eyes from the blowing sand, nostrils that close tightly to keep out sand from sandstorms, and a two-toed hoof that facilitates travel across sandy terrain.

Bring in your coins & vote for your favorite animal

January 22-26 during lunch